Since September of '59 we, the members of The Spindle Staff, have been working constantly to bring to the students of Lowell High this yearbook.

A great amount of time and effort has gone into this publication, and we sincerely hope that the whole class will enjoy it immensely.

To Miss Anna Ryan, our advisor, we extend our heartfelt thanks for all the work she has done in our behalf. Few students realize the hours Miss Ryan has spent on this product. Without her help this publication of "The Spindle" would never have been possible.

Many thanks go also to the business managers, secretaries, arrangers and artists who helped to make this issue a reality.

RAYMOND A. SULLIVAN
Headmaster

To the Graduates of 1960

With the graduates, we on the faculty experienced in the '50's changes in science, education and government. During this time we have endeavored to anticipate the events to come in the decade upon which we are now entering, and to prepare you to meet the demands which will be made upon you in living through the approaching years.

We have planned to provide you with basic standards upon which you will be able to rely as you adapt your scheme of living to the innovations which are bound to come.

Just as modern fabrics replace those used in the past, new skills will produce new devices for the future. We hope you have been able here to cultivate such standards that you will discriminate, recognize and enjoy the best of the new developments.

Class Ode

O' Lord to Thee we pray;
To serve Thee day by day;
Keep us from harm and wrong,
Let us go on and on.
Show us the light,
Give us the sight,
In humble silence
Seek Thy help.

O' Lord to Thee we pray,
Ever faithful we will stay,
Striving to do our best,
In ev'ry single quest.
Glory and Honor,
Love and Devotion,
These we will ever hold
Dear to our hearts.

25th Anniversary

It does not seem possible, but in 1935, twenty-five years ago, the Lowell High School Baton Twirlers made their first appearance. From an original membership of twenty-nine, including a leader, the group has grown to an average membership of ninety girls. With their heads held high they can look back on a pleasant football season where they appeared regularly in their traditional white and gold uniforms. This is also their first year to have twenty-five leaders.

Active twelve months of the year, the girls have made appearances as an exhibition group or in twirling contests in practically every city and town in the state. Most of the girls are members of the National Baton Twirling Association, which recognizes the Lowell Twirlers as the outstanding and most consistent winners in this part of the country. This year the girls have won over three hundred beautiful trophies and medals in competition with the finest twirlers in the New England states. These awards adorn their uniforms as they appear at the Music Festival in Woburn, on Field Day, and in the Memorial Day Parade.

One of the big events of the year is their own contest for the group championship. Beautiful gold, silver, and bronze medals are donated by Mr. Boulger.

Twirling among girls has come a long way throughout the years. It is the proud boast of the Lowell High School Baton Twirlers that they led the way with the first precision twirling and marching unit in the country. The success of these twirlers is due to the expert guidance and instruction of Mr. Wilfrid T. Boulger.

Carefully distributing and classifying the various books in use by the English department, is the vital job performed by the senior girls working in the Bookroom.

This year, the members of the Society volunteered for many services including collecting for the Heart Fund and ushering at various school functions. They also held a successful cake sale to raise money to send the officers to a regional convention.

All the activity was under the supervision of the faculty advisor, Mr. John Leary.

Lowell merchants co-operate with the school in providing the training and supervision on the job.

The Cadet Officers of the Lowell High School Regiment, organized in 1880, have once again displayed outstanding leadership and character. Under the capable supervision of Major James F. Murray and Major John A. Beaulieu the regiment has become a symbol of physical, mental and moral excellence.

This year, the regiment has undergone several revisions due to an increase in the number of participating boys. The highest ranking officer now bears the title of Brigadier General and is in command of a Sophomore and Junior battlegroup. The other high ranking officers are: colonel, lieutenant-colonel, and major respectively. This change in military setup has also been accompanied by a change in dress. The uniform of the cadet officers now corresponds to the official army uniform.

As in previous years, the Cadet Officers of 1960 have many fond and cherished memories, especially admission into the Lowell High School Boys Regiment and the Cadet Officers Ball. Field Day and Memorial Day, when they win respect and admiration from the people of Lowell, are unforgettable events in the life of every cadet.

Twenty senior girls, chosen at the close of their junior year for achievement in their Stenography and Typewriting classes, are given rich experiences as members of an organization referred to as "Personnel."

Under the guidance and instruction of Miss Mary V. Lyons, these seniors perform an outstanding service to the entire school. Their special duties include such activities as typing and mimeographing courses of study, programs for school activities, clerical and duplicating work for the Main Office or other divisions of the school organization. All this proves rewarding for these girls in the years to come.

The Girl Officers of Lowell High School carry the banner high!

The banner, naturally, is only a symbol, but in reality, it represents the highest type of leadership in the physical education classes. Belonging to the group is the goal of the majority of girls at Lowell High.

Based on a rugged competitive examination at the end of the junior year, 72 of the over 200 competing juniors become "leaders" in the undergraduate physical education classes.

The Girl Officers report twice a week in their capacity, and once a week in their own training class. It is the aim of Miss Bawita Lawler to build leadership and the moral character of "her" girls. As a result, their response is tremendous, and they serve as an inspiration to the undergraduates who strive to follow their excellent example.

Community Service is their extracurricular activity. They are constantly in demand and never fail to "answer the call."

The Lowell High School band under the able direction of its popular leader, William J. Notini, has completed another colorful and exciting year. Despite losses through last year's graduation, the band has retained the fine reputation it has known for the many years since its founding in 1924. Highlighting this year's activities were the formation of a dance band and a brass ensemble.

Besides its excellent appearance at the football games and parades, the band has continued to provide us with good music at school assemblies and numerous civic functions.

WILLIAM J. NOTINI

Business Educa

Constance Pigeon, Lois Morin, Helen Ferreira, Joan Langan, Patricia Ginieres, Judith Phillips, Astaire Guduras, and Gail McTeague.

From the secretarial course, eight girls—seven seniors and one junior—are chosen to work as secretaries during their "spare" periods in the Business Education Office.

Under the supervision of Mr. Edward Sullivan, the girls are trained to record and assist in the distribution of supplies for the entire school, and to do secretarial and statistical work for the Business Education Department.

SPORTS

By JOHN HARRINGTON

Lowell made its best offensive showing of the year in the game with Keith, downing its city rivals by a score of 14 to 0. In the first half both teams threatened several times but no score was posted.

Following the game Tiny Sheehan was chosen outstanding player of the day and received the Mike Rynne trophy. Jack Machado received the game ball for another one of his outstanding performances on offense and defense.

Our team is to be congratulated on its good showing, a pat for the backs and many more for the hard plugging linemen!

BASKETBALL

Due to the keen competition in the Greater Boston League this season, Lowell Hoopsters have had trouble equaling last year's outstanding record of 9-9. The boys did, however, have an unbeatable day when they topped Quincy 7-5, with Captain George Tzanatakas coming through with 27 points, an individual high score for the season to date. Tzang lead his team like a master as well as assisting them in play. Ted Turcotte, normally used to set up plays, took to scoring and provided 17 points.

TRACK

Lowell High's track team got off to a slow start in the 1960 campaign losing to St. John's Prep, and Salem High, last year's state champs and the NSL champs respectively. To date it has won 3 and lost 2.

ANTHONY'S ANECDOTES

Dear Doc,

I have a very serious problem. I'm so broke I don't know what to do. When I walk down the street, I keep my eyes on the ground in hopes of finding money. I get an allowance but this is gone by Monday morning. Now I've seen a keen yo-yo I'd just love to have, so you can see how desperately I need the money. I need help, but please don't say get a job. I have a serious physical handicap (a bad hangnail) and can't possibly work.

Thank you,
Cyril

Dear Cyril,

I'll say you need help! But I fully sympathize with your situation, as I cannot work either (a serious mental handicap—lack of brains). I have a couple of suggestions, though. First, you could get yourself a rich girlfriend and save your money, or you could always change your hunting grounds (telephone booths and easy chairs are good to start with). Good luck.
